Connecting alumni

UNIVERSITY
ALUMNI NETWORK

Welcome to the Oxford Alumni Groups Network!

This booklet encompasses the remarkable breadth and scope of volunteer-led alumni groups around the world, which reach into more than 90 countries. In each instance, these groups serve to connect alumni in their region, as event organisers, ambassadors and advocates for the University. We are extremely grateful for their collective and individual commitment to keeping this network vital and relationships strong. You are invited to contact the group in your area. If you find there isn't currently one near you, please do let us know – we would be happy to help you establish one.

With best wishes
Christine Fairchild

The Networks team

We are the team in the University's Alumni Office who have the privilege of supporting Oxford's global alumni group network. The University currently has 45 alumni groups in the UK and more than 170 internationally. Our groups not only act as our regional ambassadors and trusted advocates, but support current and prospective students and keep Oxonians connected to the University, wherever they may reside.

If you would like to get involved by volunteering with your local group, or if you would like to set up a new group if there is no alumni contact in your area, then please do get in touch with us at: networks@alumni.ox.ac.uk.

Remaining connected with Oxford

Your connection with Oxford does not end upon completion of your studies – there are various ways you can continue to engage with the University and fellow alumni, including:

- Getting in touch with your local alumni group, wherever you are in the world. There are now 42 alumni groups across the UK, in addition to more than 170 overseas. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/networks
- Registering online for an alumni account to update your details; access a range of offers, resources and services; search for friends and activate your Oxford email forwarding address. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/register
- Attending one of the many events organised by the University Alumni Office – from the Boat Race to book signings, reunion weekends to study days, there is something for everyone. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/events
- Networking for your career via LinkedIn. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/linkedin
- Embarking on one of the variety of tours offered under the Oxford Alumni Travellers' programme. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/travel
- Continuing your educational journey with Oxford – from signing up to a short course to downloading a podcast of an academic talk. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/learn
- Revisiting Oxford and using your Oxford Alumni Card to enjoy a wealth of benefits including free access to the colleges and University buildings; discounts on accommodation, food, entertainment and shopping in Oxford. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/visitoxford
- Signing up to receive OT Extra – a monthly round-up of Oxford news and information for alumni; join one of our interest-specific mailing lists covering books and learning, careers, events, sport and travel. www.alumni.ox.ac.uk/connect

The University's network of volunteer-run alumni groups is one of the most important vehicles for building an engaged, informed community of advocates and supporters throughout the UK and overseas.
